Keeping intouch. I'm still not working, but hope to start something soon, this welfare mess aint nothing. I still want to drive, but here, local, not out of town. If not I'm the master of several trades, just have to fine the right one, if not driving, maybe back to bring a nurse aide. Tell everyone I said hello, and keep the prayers coming, also tell grandma she has to settle for a small picture of Tiffany, cause ~~at~~ when I ordered them, she had taken them over to her dad's, and gave them all away, except for the small ones. Tell grandma, when her hand is oke, she'll have to write me too, either there in Kansas, or California.

Love Always
