Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may their be no moaning of the bar

When I put out to sea
But such a tide as moving seems asleep

Too full for sound or foam When that which drew from out the boundless deep

Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark!

And may there be no sadness of farewell

When I embark.

For through from out our bourne of time and place

The flood may bear me far,

I hope to see my Pilot face to face

When I have crossed the bar*
