

THE HOME DEMONSTRATION CREED

To maintain the highest ideals of home life; to count children the most important of crops; to so mother them that their bodies may be sound; their minds clear, their spirits happy; and their characters generous.

To place service above comfort; to let loyalty to high purposes silence discordant notes; to let neighborliness supplant hatreds; to be discouraged never.

To lose self in generous enthusiasms; to extend to the less fortunate a helping hand; to believe one's community may become the best of communities; and to cooperate with others for the common ends of a more abundant home and community life.

This is the offer of the Home Demonstration Unit to the Homemaker of today.

POEM

Are you an active member,
The kind that's liked so well,
Or, are you just contented
With a button on your lapel?

Do you attend the meetings,
And mingle with the flock,
Or, do you sit outside,
And criticize and knock?

Think this over, club members,
And know right from wrong—
Are you an active member,
Or, do you just belong?

PROJECT LEADERS' GUIDE

I—PREPARATION—

1. Did she want to be a leader?
2. Did she find the interests of her unit members?
3. Did she attend the training school?
4. Did she make a temporary outline right after training school?
5. Did she prepare illustrative materials?
6. Did she try it out at home?
7. Did the leader know the time limit for her lesson?

II—PRESENTATION—

1. Did she get to the meeting ON TIME?
2. Did she find a good "spot" to be seen and heard?
3. Was she organized before the lesson began?
4. Did she hold the group interest?
5. Did she adhere to her time allowance?

MEMBER'S GUIDE

1. Did I give the leader my full attention?
2. Did I participate in group activity?
3. Did I practice what I learned?
