

FIVE THINGS OF LIFE WE ALL SHOULD LEARN

There are five things in life that we ought to learn:

LEARN TO LAUGH—A good laugh is better than medicine. When you smile or laugh, your brain is freed for a moment from the load that it ordinarily carries.

LEARN TO TELL A HELPFUL STORY—A well-told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room.

LEARN TO KEEP YOUR TROUBLES TO YOURSELF—The world is too busy to linger over your ills and sorrows.

LEARN TO STOP CROAKING—If you cannot see any good in this world, keep the bad to yourself.

LEARN TO GREET YOUR FRIENDS WITH A SMILE—They carry too many frowns in their own hearts to be bothered with any of yours.

GRACE SONG

(Tune—Doxology)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him where e're our footsteps go,
And may our joy and happiness,
In comradeship all others bless.

AMEN.

A YEAR

A year is like a loaf of bread
All fresh and fair and new,
With every day a little slice
From off that loaf to you.
And sprinkled sometimes through the loaf
To make the flavor good,
Are raisins,—holidays that come
Exactly as they should.
The year is like a loaf of bread,
So fresh and new and fair,
And when it's nibbled all away
Another waits you there.
