What is Success?

It's doing your job the best you can,
and being just to your fellow
man;
It's making money, but holding friends,
and staying true to your aims
and ends;
It's figuring how and learning
why,
and looking forward and
thinking high;
It's daring blithely the field
of chance,
while making labor a brave
romance;
It's going onward despite ^{defeat} and fighting staunchly but keeping sweet.

It's being clean & playing fair,
It's laughing lightly at ~~some~~ Despair;
It's looking up at the stars above and braving deeply of Life & Love; It's sharing sorrow and work and mirth,
and making better this good old earth.
It's serving, striving, thro' strain
and stress,
It's doing your noblest - that's Success!

Taint what we have
But what we give Taint where we are
But how we live
Taint what we do
But how we do it
That makes this life
Worth giving thru it.

Discrimination

(The Serpent.)

When the flag of our nation had trouble in view
And needed all soldiers to stand
brave and true,
There was no thought of station,
standing or hue,
But all were united for Red, white and blue.
Thus ending all discrimination.

When the struggle was ended and our boys home returned,
To their own fire-sides for which they had yearned,
And saw their own people bruised,
tortured and burned
By comrades they'd fought for in France, they then learned.
There was new life in discrimination.

When a mob of ten thousand fiends gather at night
In front of a court house and stage
a fake fight
Bruise, batter and burn a poor human for spite
And the law of the state says "the crime is all right,"
It is time to crush discrimination.

When nine helpless lads in Scotts-boro's affair,
Prove in court they are guiltless
and caught by a snare,
Of the crime they're accused they are all unaware,
And the law still contends they
must die,
It is time to kill discrimination.

In our battle for justice we all should unite,
With our backs to the wall let us
wage a brave fight, Take the Lord as our captain to strengthen our might,
We are certain to win for we know
we are right.
In our fight against discrimination.

MRS. GERTRUDE WASHINGTON
Kensington, Kas.

ed late Saturday night lasted well into Sunday morning. At the morning service, the pastor, Dr. C. Lopez McAllister delivered an interesting sermon. The Voice, the church bulletin which has appeared now for three Sundays is greatly appreciated by the congregation. It carries the announcements of the week and other news of the church. The B. Y. P. U. services were good. The Ever Ready group gave the program of the evening. The doughnut sale given by the B. Y. P. U. on Saturday was a success. Do not forget the cook-food sale Saturday, March 24, at Roberts establishment at 1218 Broadway. This sale will be given by the Pastor's Aid club. Come and hear the Ebony Dots at the Eighth and Center Streets Baptist church on March 28 at 8:00 o'clock. They are appearing under the auspices of the Mission circle. Church Night dinner will take place Friday night, April 6. Attend the entertainment which will be given by the Pastor's Aid club, April 3. A quilt will be given away.

Sunday at the Scott Chapel M. E. church was a high day: At 11 a. m., and 5 p. m., the pastor, the Rev. J. R. Guyton, preached. At 3 p. m., the Rev. Guyton preached the sacramental sermon at the Allen Chapel A. M. E. church. Rev. and Mrs. Guyton attended the beginning of youth week at the Second Christian church Monday night. The following persons were visited by Rev. Guyton during the week: Mrs. Carrie Fugate, Miss Bessie Robinson, Mrs. Victoria Scott, Mr. and Mrs. James Eildes, Mr. and Mrs. William Abbey, Rev. and Mrs. Holmes, the Frazier family, Mr. and Mrs. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Day. Rev. and Mrs. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thurston, Miss Helen Parson, Mrs. Fannie Johnson and Rev. C. W. Holmes visited Rev. Guyton and family this week. Mrs. Lucy Holmes was prayer meeting leader at the Scott Chapel M. E. church Wednesday night. The second stop program of the "off to Denver via Bus" drive was Thursday night. Jesse Thurston, the second driver in charge. The program was unique
