

Faint what we have
But what we give
Faint where we are
But where how we live
Faint what we do
But how we do it
That makes this life
Worth going thru it

Looking forward to success,
Standing each and every test
Facing every trial and care,
Like a man without a fear

The K. K. K. Club met at the usual hour Friday, July 7, 1933 at the home of Mrs. Cordelia Alexander after singing, prayer by the Chaplain.

Roll call, helpful household hints. Some very helpful items were given by the members present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mrs. Jessie Sayers was reinstated as a member of the club. Rules were suspended and Mrs. Hausta, Mrs. Shirley and Mrs. L. Van were made members
