

Dear Cousin Genie and family

Here we are entering a big new year, my how glad we are and we are hoping for some wondrous happenings from our government down to our domestic affairs, when there is good based on fundamental principals being executed at any one place it has its effect in a great way, we are well, but had that virus infection, it didn't do us so bad, we had lemons, honey and whiskey for stews, besides the fever we'd tea foot wash.

My turkeys are yelping so much that I feel our worst weather is behind us, of course I could
