Dear Ola -
As years roll by
And things you see I wonder what your name will be

My Dear Cousin, Remember me when this you see you may see this
And not see me.
But if the grave shall Be my bed Remember
me when I am dead.
Your Cousin
Blanche

Dear Sister
I don't know how to empty my chest for them out the things that give its cheer I shall always remember you and I hope you will remember me.

Dear Ola —:

Money cannot not by my heart I desire its only you that I admire for without a penny you will do, its not for money that I love you

Dear Cousin Ola -
These few lines which here I trace, time may not change nor age of face, they maybe read but valued not when she who penned this is forgot but when in after years you look in meditation on this book, who will this thoughtless girl be who wrote this verse to-day for thee

Your Cousin
Lida.

Dear friend Ola - While counting over thy paper
Recalled by memory
if it will dim thy pleasure - Please give one that ought to me. -

mountain Don't be contented with merely a name
But climb upward higher & higher.
Tell you rest on summit of

Dear Lela
When the sun is red and you bring wind. I will be your sweet heart. If you will be mine. I will be constant.
I will be true. and will love my happiest hour for you. So if you love me, like I love you.
There wouldnt be no telling what we would do.
Lovingly you. J. M. Lewis
