

in on stopped in Salt Lake, Utah, Boise, Idaho and Pendleton, Oregon, so we were very glad to land safely in Portland.

Every thing is the same here. It is cool and every thing is green. Our lawn needs cutting, but don't know when we will get to it.

We are working late to night in the office trying to get some mail out.

I defrosted my ice box this morning, and cleaned the kitchen, bought some groceries, so that I can start cooking again.

I am glad that Buddy, Bernice and Lois made it home without an
