

Tell Marie that ~~the~~ our furnace is working fine now, and that I am sorry it was not acting right when she was here.

Well I must close now.
We are going to have our regular weekly meeting here in the office to night, and I still have to go home and fix some thing to eat.

I will be writing again soon.

I hope that you are feeling better ~~at~~ each day mamma. Lots of love to you and all.

Lovingly your daughter,

Louretta
