Dear mother & all;

Received your letter and also Marie's last week, and was very glad to get them. We had 7 or 8 inches of snow here Friday night and Sat. morning. We had to put the chains on our car Sat. morning for the first time since we've been here. The weather man is predicting more snow for tonight. I don't know what's wrong with Oregon trying to act like Kansas.

We are still working trying to sell these 16 new homes. Right now the weather is keeping nearly everyone inside. These people here are not use to snow. I am almost contented at home myself.
