Dear Rose:

I hope this letter finds you well. How are Harold and Mairie. We arrived home at 6.45 Tuesday evening. How are things going down there after the excitement. I thank you very much for taking us to the station.

There isn't much doing here at the present time. It was a long journey back home. I suppose you are kept quite busy these days. They are having a pajama review at the Island theater to-day. I think the Rileys in Hastings have left to come to Kansas. How when we called up Tuesday evening there was no one at home. Have they found Mrs Riley yet. I'm going to make myself a ensemble. Have you started your dress yet.

I had a very nice time while I was stopping with you. When you come up I will try to make your visit
