Dearest Rose:

I was very glad to receive your loving letter, and it came just on the right day, because it was a rainy, dreary sort of a day, just the kind of a day to make one blue. Then when I came home from school and found your letter waiting, I couldn't put my books down soon enough to read it. It sure brought me out of the fog after I had read it.

How is school coming along out there. I am doing fine so far, and the coach had me start training for fall track the last of the week ~~for~~ because the school has had lights put on the athletic field, and all the football games will be played at night and he wants all the colored boys out for track to run between halves at the games. The races are supposed to be mile races, and that's one race I really dread because the
