

Manassas City, Kans.

Sept. 22, 1931.

Dear Rose:

How are you old pal
& cousin, these few lines
leave me D.H.

I am really keeping busy, I have to go to work at 2:30 and get home at 7:00
I run some studying, girl they really give you
hard lessons.

There are sure a bunch of negroes up there, I never did see so many, and the majority of them are smart.

I have lost my step with Mr. Shepard he hasn't been to see me yet. I don't care tho. for now I won't be bothered with company.

Will you please
send me that rain coat
there of Jonetta's. She said
