

1210 N. Madison
Friday a.m.

Topeka Kans.
Mar. 1, 1935.

Dearest Rose

Pardon me if I have overstepped myself in addressing you. (Smiles) I received your letter Wednesday was very glad to hear from you, and glad to know you survived through the dust storm and blizzard I read about it through the Papers.

Rose I was really too lucky at first I got off the train at 9:18 went straight to the funeral home, and started to work that afternoon. His head Embalmer was in Minnesota taking treatment