Dear Rose,

Received your letter sometime ago but have been sick in bed every since, is why I haven't written you sooner. Am still in bed. Eula is writing for me. I am some better at this writing. May get up sometime this week. Have already been in bed 3 weeks and starting on my fourth.

Everybody else is real well. Adrian is in Lexington. Had a funeral there Sunday. Am expecting him this P.M.

Hope you have a little job by now. It is real hot here today. First June day we've had.

Madeline was over to see me a day or so ago.

I'm expecting a letter from Mamma anytime. How was the party Donald was to give? Know you had a big time. How is Leota? Has her summer school begun?

Don't know any news. Just wanted you to know I am some
