Dear Warren: -

Your letter was received this morning just as we finished our breakfast and it certainly grieved us to hear of your accident. I could not help crying and if there is any thing at all that I can do just let me know. Dad is down in his back but he felt like trying to lay off to drive out there. Do not be surprised to see us. I cannot say definitely. Bro. was home about three days from the hospital and left for Chicago yesterday afternoon. He was feeling very well but his rheumatism had hurt him in his left hand terribly. He said that they were real nice to him up there.

Did the mule run away with you? Were both the bones broken? Please try to not get wet. If you get wet it may be hard for you. We are so thankful that you were not
