

Bravo!

The performance you are about to see is made possible, in part, by the 1,946 contributors to the 1996 Campaign for the Arts.

Through the Campaign, the Lexington Arts &

Cultural Council provides essential operating support to 13 Beneficiary Organizations and Community Arts Development grants that reach diverse audiences of all ages. The arts educate, inspire, bring people together, and have a significant impact on our local economy. Contributions from people like you are critical to our ability to continue achieving these objectives. Bravo to the contributors to the 1996 Campaign for the Arts.
