

MAR. 29-MAY 8
Opening Night: Saturday, April 2

Crossroads brings back this classic about Cephus Miles, a gentle farmer who travels miles and years from his home in Cross Roads, North Carolina, before realizing it's the only place he ever wanted to be. After being imprisoned for refusing to serve in Vietnam, Cephus drifts northward where he is dazzled and disoriented by city life. When he returns home, he finds much has changed in the South, but it is still the same place and has the same people he loves. HOME radiates with the warmth of stories-on-the-porch on a summer evening - a beautifully written play the whole family will enjoy. It will make you laugh, cry and find your way home!
