

SAYERS GENERAL STORE

Samuel G. Wilson, one of the first early white emigrants in Nicodemus, operated this general store in 1880. The modest store building was considered the "handsomest in Graham County" at that time. The business was subsequently acquired by H.S. Henrie and later purchased by W. L. Sayers, prominent black attorney. The structure was demolished in 1981.