The 18-piece Boulevard Big Band offers concerts featuring the music of Count Basie, Buddy Rich, Woody Herman, and Stan Kenton, among others. The band boasts in its own ranks outstanding writers and arrangers whose works are regularly performed.

Based in Kansas City, the Boulevard Big Band features many of the area's finest musicians, including music faculty members from the University of Kansas, Washburn University, Central Missouri State University, as well as music teachers from elementary, secondary, and private ranks.

Members of the band have performed with Woody Herman, Stan Kenton, Count Basie, the Frank Mantooth Big Band, the Ashley Alexander Big Band, Clare Fisher, Sergio Mendes, and others.

The band, which performs regularly in the Kansas City area, was recently voted Kansas City's best big band. Its debut CD will be available from Sea Breeze Records early in 1994.

In conjunction with a concert, clinics in writing, arranging, and improvisation, and instructional clinics for instrumentalists are available.
