

A cherry pie recipe which is real extra special is contributed by JoAnn Logsdon. This is no ordinary cherry pie, but a special treat which your family and friends will be crazy about!

Almond Crust Cherry Pie

To your favorite pie crust recipe add:
1/2 c. almonds
Press these into the crust as you are rolling it. Bake pie shell. Cool.

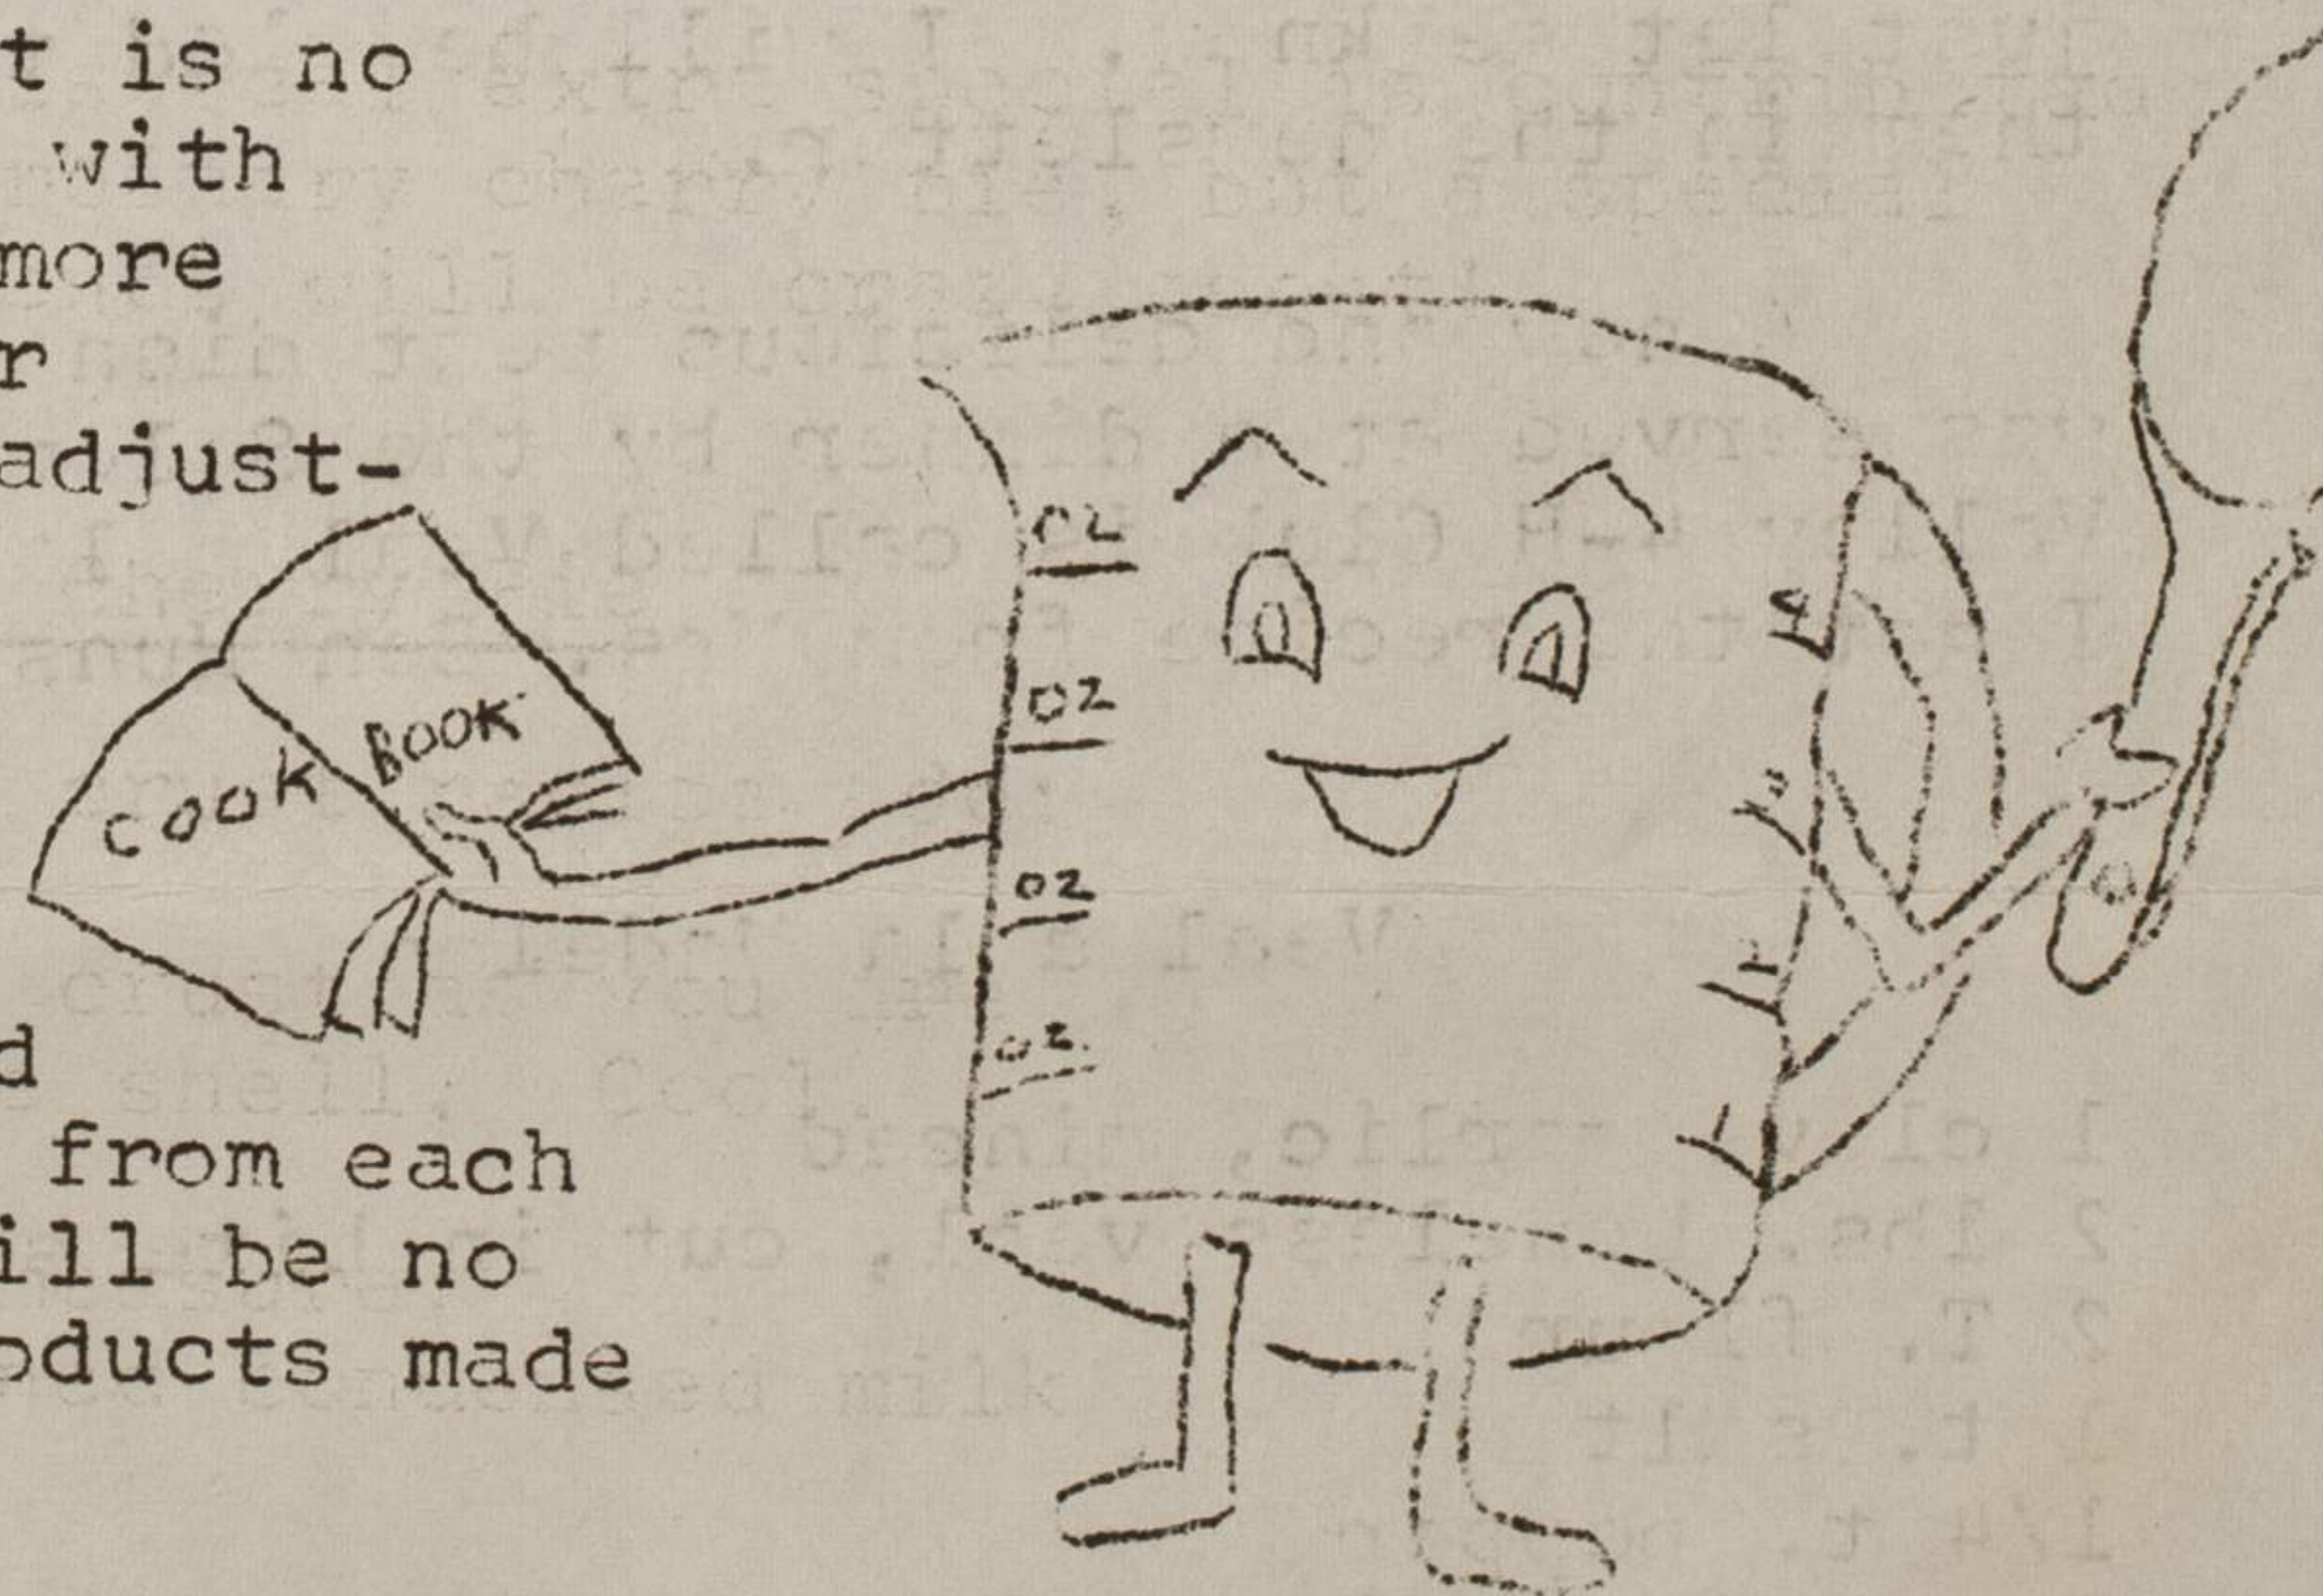

For the pie filling measure:
1 (15oz.) can sweetened condensed milk
1/3 c. lemon juice
1 t. vanilla
1/2 t. almond extract
1/2 c. whipping cream

Combine milk with lemon juice, vanilla, and almond extract. Stir until thick. Fold in whipped cream. Spoon into cooled pie shell.

Top with cherry pie filling. Chill 2 or 3 hours.

Ladies, listen to this. It is no longer necessary to fuss around with sifting flour! Since there is more flour in a cup of unsifted flour than a cup of sifted flour an adjustment does have to be made. Simply spoon flour into a dry measuring cup. Level it off. Then remove 2 level tablespoonful of flour. When the volume of unsifted flour is so adjusted by removing 2 level tablespoons from each measured cup of flour - there will be no difference in the quality of products made with sifted or unsifted flour.

A lady invited several friends to a mushroom steak dinner. When Nora; her maid, opened the can of mushrooms, preparatory to making the sauce there was a slight scum on top. The time being short, the lady suggested "Give the dog a little and if he eats it, it's probably all right." Since the dog liked it and begged for more, the dinner was finished. After the guests had enjoyed their dinner, Nora came in, white-faced, with the dessert and whispered tragically to her employer, "Ma'am the dog is dead." There was only one thing to do and she did it. Some time later when eight people were lying around in various stages of recovering and the doctor had departed with his stomach pump, the lady wearily asked, "Nora, where's the poor dog?" "Out on the front steps, Ma'am, where he fell after the car hit him."
