

Dear Customer:

It is our desire to serve you satisfactorily. Should you find it necessary to write us about your order, please return the shipping label from this package with your letter. This would help us identify your order and we will be able to answer you promptly.