Presents Pearl Cleage's
FLYIN' WEST

Directed by Brad Shaw

January 22 through February 9

1898. Nicodemus, Kansas. This is the captivating story of 4 African American women who leave lynchings and riots in the South to settle in an all-black town on the Kansas plains. Here these former slaves face the problems of the prairie's harsh winters, isolation, and the conflicts of discrimination.

WED-SAT 8p.m. SUN 3p.m.
Jan. 22 & 23 are preview performances.
Jan. 24 - Opening night
