

SHARING THE LEGACY OF THE WEST

Membership at The Autry gives you and your family the opportunity to explore the exciting and inspiring story of the American West—the people, cultures and events that have shaped the legacy of this vital region.

As a member, you can visit the museum's permanent galleries and special exhibitions as often as you like. Throughout the year, we present a variety of programs, ranging from original radio theater, cowboy poetry and music to cultural celebrations, children's workshops, and lectures. With the Los Angeles Times Children's Discovery Gallery, we offer hands-on, interactive exhibits for children and families throughout the year.

With the many other special benefits enjoyed by members—discounts to programs and lectures, exhibition previews, and savings on purchases from the Museum Store and Golden Spur Cafe—joining The Autry is practical and rewarding!

THE MUSEUM'S MISSION

The mission of The Autry is to serve as a non-profit cultural and educational institution in acquiring, preserving, and interpreting artifacts that document the history of the American West.

A significant element of the museum's purpose is to study and collect material related to both the historical West and the fictional West of art, literature, film, and other media.
