

Charlene Williams Peyton

Mrs. Charlene Peyton is a native of Denver, Colorado, the daughter of a Baptist minister. The entire family is very musical and Charlene, with her father and sister, formed a trio which regularly sang locally and on radio.

She began her formal music training with Frank McCoy in El Centro, California, and then went on to Azusa Pacific College where she majored in Music and graduated with a B.A. degree. During her college years, she was a featured soloist with the concert Choir and Chorale.

Mrs. Peyton is married to Kenneth Peyton. While they were living in England, Mrs. Peyton directed chapel choirs and formed and directed the "Charlene Peyton Singers". She is the winner of the U.S.A.F.E. Talent Contest and the Bury St. Edmunds Music Festival in the Contralto and Negro Spiritual classes. Mrs. Peyton has performed throughout England, Spain, Switzerland and several other countries.

Since their return to the United States in 1970, Mrs. Peyton has continued to direct choirs, teach public school music, and give concerts and recitals. Mrs. Peyton was awarded "Outstanding Woman of America".

Mrs. Peyton is presently a music teacher in the Cape Girardeau Public School System and was honored as "Outstanding Teacher of the Year". She sings with, directs, accompanies, and arranges music for "Heartsong", a ladies quartet formed in the summer of 1986. They have recently finished their first album of contemporary christian music and she has just finished her second solo album. Along with her extensive performance schedule, Mrs. Peyton is an active church and community member. Her activities include teaching an adult Sunday School class, belongs to The League of Women Voters, NAACP, Otahki Girl Scout Council, and Delta Kappa Gamma, an Educational Sorority.
