

IRON COMPASS LIMITED PRESENTS

LOS ANGELES:

AVIATION IN THE GOLDEN ERA

LIMITED EDITION PRINTS BY AVIATION HISTORY PAINTER

MICHAEL BOSS

“GLENDALE: GRAND CENTRAL AIR TERMINAL IN 1933”

Spectacular Spanish-Colonial Revival/Art Deco airport provided services to major aircraft manufacturers and celebrities of the day. The Shirley Temple movie “Bright Eyes” was filmed here. Aircraft shown include a Lockheed Orion of Varney Speed Lanes and a Trans World Airlines Ford Tri-Motor. Image size 13 1/2” x 22 1/2”; 95 A/P @ $95 each; ed. 950, S/N @ $75 each.

“BURBANK: UNION AIR TERMINAL IN 1934”

Spanish-Colonial Revival/Art Deco airport terminal located near Los Angeles, California, was the first multi-million dollar airport in America. Aircraft shown include Roscoe Turner’s Lockheed Air Express, a visiting American Airlines Curtiss Condor, Allan Hancock’s Waco UIC and a Goodyear Blimp. Image size 13 1/2” x 22 1/2”; 95 A/P @ $95 each; ed. 950, S/N @ $75 each.

YOUR IRON COMPASS LIMITED DEALER IS:
800-258-1232 +$5 S&H

SUNFLOWER UNIVERSITY PRESS
1531 Yuma • P.O. Box 1009 • Manhattan, KS 66505-1009