

POLITICAL SAVVY

Political savvy encompasses both understanding the political process -- who makes decisions, based on what information, in what time frame -- and a willingness and ability to act upon that knowledge by affirming or interceding in the process.

RESOURCES

Adequate resources should be available to support the mission, including a broad and diverse base of constituent support with access to the necessary human, financial and technical resources.