

48TH NATIONAL PRESERVATION CONFERENCE

Boston, Massachusetts
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
October 26 to 30, 1994

"PRESERVATION, ECONOMICS & COMMUNITY REBIRTH"

Don't miss this five day conference which explores a wide range of historic preservation and community revitalization issues focusing on how preservation can play an important role in the economic vitality of a community. This is the annual opportunity for preservationists to learn, share, and network with each other, this year with the backdrop of the historic City of Boston.

SCHEDULED SPEAKERS

David McCullough
Pulitzer Prize Winner, Author and Historian

Patrick Leahy (Invited)
United States Senator from Vermont

Robert Campbell
Architectural Critic, Architect and Author

Dolores Hayden
Author, Yale Professor of Architecture and Urbanism

Glenn C. Loury
Professor of Economics, Boston University

Roger Kennedy
Director of the National Park Service

Elizabeth Michaud
Community Activist Against WalMart

Thomas Menino
Mayor of Boston, National Trust Advisor

SCHEDULED SESSIONS

Tax incentives, affordable housing, heritage education, interpretation of historic sites, disaster planning, sprawl, heritage tourism, easements, railroad depots, scenic byways, land use planning, cultural diversity, folklore, landscape issues, historic district commissions, Main Street, property rights, historic homes, advocacy, legislation and more

CONFERENCE ACTIVITIES

18 local and regional mobile workshops
26 local and regional tours

Special events at historic sites such as the Massachusetts State House and South Station

SCHOLARSHIPS

Partial scholarships to encourage cultural diversity at the conference are available. Call for an application.

SPONSORS

National Trust for Historic Preservation
National Park Service
The American Institute of Architects
The Trust for Public Land
Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency
Massachusetts Historical Commission

Early registration deadline - August 1, 1994

For more information write or call: 1994 Preservation Conference, National Trust for Historic Preservation, 1785 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20036, 1-800-944-NTHP.