SOCIAL SECURITY

The basic idea of old-age, survivors, and disability insurance under the social security law is a simple one.

During working years employees, their employers, and self-employed people pay social security taxes which go into special funds; and

When earnings have stopped because the worker has retired, or died, or is disabled, benefit payments are made from the funds to replace part of the earnings the family has lost.

Nine out of ten working people are now building protection for themselves and their families under the social security law.
