

her father from looking at her, if he wasn't her daddy was white. I never asked mamma his name or her mother's name. She had only one child and that was our great grandmother Mary Jane. Grandpa was the last of his family that he knew of before he died. The Lewises were from Ky. part of the children stayed there and the ones I've given you their names came to me. Joe Lewis was Grandpa Pascal's (Paschal) son by another woman.

Jasper Riley, the last of them may be able to help you more with the Riley history. His address is 1023 N Washington, Wichita, Mo. Here's luck to you. If I can be of further help, let me know. I think grandma Lou had some brothers but I don't remember their names exactly.

Victoria and family are doing nicely except colds. I've always felt sorry for your dad. His mother died when he was 16. His dad was hard boiled in his talking and quick tempered and your dad followed his father's actions. He had a wonderful mother, sweet, kind, good hearted and easy to get along with. Algernon was like her. Pray for your dad, even grown ups are just adult children. Pray for yourself too that you may understand him and he will understand you.

Your Aunt Amanda had been with your mother when all of your children were born except Sally so she told me I don't know what I will do. Amanda had passed. I told her to ~~her~~ name the baby for her. We tried Sally Amanda (salamander). We tried other combinations of Sally, Amanda, Jane and Lou and arrived at Amanda Lou then your dad added Sally. After your mother passed I got after him for changing and adding Sally. He didn't say anything
