Did Marjorie marry any more or did she and her husband go back together again? I heard they separated.

Probably the army training will help Whitcomb. I do not know about his disposition. Did he finish his school?

I always felt badly because Willard sent me an invitation to his graduation to Meademus. It stayed there nearly two weeks before it was sent to Bogue where I get my mail. I tried to get a graduation card in the City but it was too late.

I think Velma is a wonderful person. I tell my son he could not have selected a better wife. She lost her mother when about 9 months old and her father when
