CHICAGO—(P)—A suit for 10 damages against the Angeles Chargers of the American Football League was filed in U.S. district court by the Chicago Bears.

The suit charges the new Angeles club with "willful and maliciously" inducing Ralph Anderson to break his contract to play for the National Football League Bears in 1960.

TEAM OWNER-coach George Halas said Anderson signed a 1960 contract as late as last June wrote for coach that he was in good shape and intended to report to training camp weighing 225 pounds.

"Anderson even stored personal belongings with the Bears before leaving for a West Coast visit," Halas said. He said he would pick them up on his way to camp.

"While on the West Coast, the Chargers induced him to break his contract and play with them instead of returning to Chicago."

AS SAID the suit was filed in U.S. district court.

Woman Scribe Tests Wildcat Pressbox Next

KANSAS CITY — (P) — There's no Big Eight rule against women writers in the conference press boxes so Barbara Simmers may try again.

Miss Simmers, assistant sports editor of the Hutchinson, Kan., News, was barred from the University of Kansas press box Saturday when she sought accommodations as a reporter for the News.

DON PIERCE, KU publicity director, stood on a rule of the American Football Writer's Association which bars all women except telegraphers from press boxes. He escorted Miss Simmers to a seat in the stadium.

Reaves Peters, Big Eight Commissioner, said Monday: "There is no written rule. As far as I know it has not been discussed as a conference matter." Peters said he could not recall ever seeing a woman covering a football game from a Big Eight press box.

MISS SIMMERS, a sports writer and editor during her last days at Southern Methodist University, has

Nixon Takes Holiday Away From Players

WASHINGTON—(P)—Coach Mike Nixon, incensed in defeat, Monday revoked the usual Monday holiday for his Washington Redskins and ordered them through a bristling disciplinary workout.

"There are too many complacent kids on the club," Nixon growled from the despair of a 44-7 drubbing by the St. Louis Cards Sunday. It was one of the worst beatings suffered by a Washington team.

"NO TEAM can be that bad," Nixon snapped as he broke precedent and conducted an afternoon of rough stuff at Griffith Stadium.

Club owner George Preston Marshall backed Nixon's whipcracking. And in response to the standard inquiry in such circumstances—two straight thrashings—Marshall said the coach's position is secure at this time.

While declaring himself a Nixon rooster, Marshall added this view rarely heard from sports bosses: "The public changes coaches."

Phillies Eye New Ballpark

PHILADELPHIA — (P) — The Philadelphia Phillies raised the price of their baseball tickets Monday and looked of a new stadium within three years.

"When you finish last and raise admission prices, I realize you're not going to win any popularity contests," said Bob Carpenter, owner of the National League club, at a luncheon for newsmen.

"We didn't want to make a move," Carpenter said, but rising costs have made it necessary. . . . We figure on the basis of what we drew last season, slightly over 100,000, that we will take in about $100,000 more in 1961, but we'll still finish in the red."

Concerning the new stadium, to replace Connie Mack Stadium, Carpenter said it would be ready within three years, but would give details. "I'm confident we'll have a new stadium in place by that time," he said.
