

School Budget Details Printing Not Required

Atty. Gen. William Ferguson ruled Tuesday common school districts are not required to include the proposed budget in the newspaper notice of the annual meeting of the voters of the district.

Ferguson said the law requires the budget to be posted with notice of the annual meeting on one of the front doors of the school house in at least two or more public places elsewhere in the district.