

and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

5. NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETINGS. Notice of the time, place and purpose of purposes of the annual meeting shall be served, either personally or by mail, not less than ten nor more than 40 days before the meeting upon each person who appears upon the books of the Society as a member, and if mailed, such notice shall be directed to the member at his address as it appears on the books of the Society, unless he shall have filed with the Secretary of the Society a written request that notices intended for him be mailed to some other address, in which case it shall be mailed to the address designated in such request.

6. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the members, other than those regulated by the statute, may be called at any time by the President, upon written request of any board member or by written request of one-third of the members of the Society.

7. NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETINGS. Notice of a special meeting stating the time, place, and purpose or purposes thereof shall be served personally or by mail upon each member residing with the United States, not less than five nor more than forty days before such meeting and, if mailed, such notice shall be directed to each member at this address as it appears on the books or records of the Society, unless he shall have filed with the Secretary of the Society a written request that notices intended for him shall be mailed to some other address, in which case it shall be mailed to the address designated in such request.

8. QUORUM. At any meeting of members of the Society, the presence of one-third of the members in person or by proxy shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for all purposes except as otherwise provided by law, and the act of a majority of the members present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the full membership except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute or by these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum, or when a quorum is present, a meeting may be adjourned from time to time by vote of a majority of the members present in person or by proxy, without notice other than by announcement at the meeting and without further notice to any absent member. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be
