

THE OBITUARY

Beatrice VanDuvall, was born in Nicodemus, Kansas November 20, 1890. She was the eldest of several brothers and sisters, all who has preceeded her passing.

She grew up in Nicodemus and Stockton, Kansas. She professed her faith in Christ at an early age and eagerly looked forward to following her destiny in helping others.

She received her teaching credentials at Manhattan State College, and taught in western Kansas. She later went to Bryn Myer College in New York City.

She worked in the Y.W.C.A. in Denver, Colorado in the late 1920's and early 1930's, later she went to New York City, and in the mid 30's she was President of the Y.W.C.A. Beatrice VanDuvall escorted Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt to a Rights for Youth and Women affair in the 1930's.

She came to California in 1961 and later, she joined with the membership of Calvary C. M. E. Church under the pastorage of Reverend William H. Dandridge, and was an ardent member of the Sunday School and participated until she could no longer attend.

On July 7, 1978 God called her home to rest.

She leaves many nephews and neices, among them are, Orlo, and Vernon VanDuvall, Adrain, Leland, Gilbert, Van and Alexander Clark. Neices, Eleanor Fields, Ivy Lee Switzer, Elizabeth Gage, Leroy VanDuvall and many more who held equal importance in her life along with many, many friends to mourn her passing.
