Dr. Carl Voltmer, Director of Athletics,
Central Missouri State Teachers College,
Warrensburg, Missouri.

Dear Dr. Voltmer:

Some time ago you wrote me about a basketball game. At that time we had all of our dates arranged, but it looks as if there may be a slip up in one of our games that we may not carry through. If that is the case, I am thinking about the possibility of having a clinic game here on Saturday, December 3rd.

We are playing the Oklahoma Aggies at Stillwater at the dedication of their new field house with a seating capacity of 9,000, on December 9 and 10. Our Big Six coaches meeting is Friday night, December 2nd, and the basketball rules meeting is Saturday morning, December 3rd, at ten o'clock in Kansas City at the Hotel Kansas Citian. I thought it might be a nice thing if we could arrange a clinic game for the evening of December 3rd.

In the afternoon we could meet with demonstrations for the high school coaches of Kansas and Missouri and have our groups demonstrate the necessary fundamentals and formations. We, of course, would be glad to have Coach Scott and his squad demonstrate the fundamentals that he thinks would be necessary. If he should object and not care to use his men it would be entirely satisfactory, but we would be glad to work with him on this detail. We could get together and work out the points that he would care to stress and those that we would stress.

While we will not have much of a pay crowd, as we expect to invite all the high school coaches and players free, we would be glad to have you come over if you feel that you can come for expenses. Will you please confer with Coach Scott and let me hear from you at your convenience?

Dr. Lapp just returned after getting one of the Voltmers married. I haven't had a chance to talk with him long enough to ascertain which one it was.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education
Varsity Basketball
