

October 14, 1938.

Mr. E. C. Quigley,
St. Marys, Kansas.

Dear Ernie:

I am glad that you have accepted the games at Stillwater on December 9 and 10. We have had to change our game here with the Oklahoma Aggies to February 8, and I am sorry that you will not be able to work it. I notice by the Big Six schedule that you are working the Nebraska-Iowa State game at Lincoln on that date.

Now, for February 10 I might add that I have written Dee Erickson that since the Washburn-Kansas fracas in football we want to get somebody who can run that ball game in Topeka, and I have only mentioned one man and that man is Ern Quigley. I have asked Dee to submit a list of names for the other official, but I am asking for you on that night, so please hold it.

We are not going to have any trouble up there, even though you should not work the game, but we want you, and I want you to know that we want you.

Now, on January 2, with Carleton College, I am sure that we want you so you hold that tentatively and I will take it up with Marshall Hebold. And the same is true on December 3rd with Warrensburg here for a clinic game. We would like to have you appear in the afternoon along with our group and talk to the individual officials and other men assembled on good officiating technique. I know that you will be glad to do this for the cause of humanity!

By the way, I might add that the Big Six basketball coaches are meeting in Kansas City on the night of December 2nd to have our pow-wow on interpretations, and so forth, then we are having breakfast with the Missouri Valley coaches to discuss uniformity. And then at ten o'clock in the morning we will have our basketball rules discussion, and you know the meeting would not be complete without your presence. We trust that you will count on making that meeting.