Mr. Reaves Peters,
Big Six Conference Commissioner,
342 So. Chelsea,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Reaves:

George Edwards and I talked over the phone last night about our games in Kansas City on December 22 and 23, and thought it would be best to have Colorado play Missouri on Friday night, and Kansas meet Kansas State that night. Then on Saturday night we will have Kansas vs. Missouri, and Nebraska vs. Kansas State.

Since there is no possible way to play an elimination tournament, with winners playing winners, and losers playing losers, we thought our drawing power would be better by having the Kansas-Missouri game on Saturday night. Missouri has a veteran team back, and we have only one of our regulars from last year.

We will appreciate your handling all other details, and to supervise the games. We have talked to Mr. Clyde Baker about the price of tickets.

I question whether we should pay the price to timers and scorers that are paid for the NCAA games. There are many of our boys that could do those things, and I think complimentary tickets for their friends would suffice as payment. I would like your opinion as to whether it is necessary to pay a high price for this service, which is done at home without any expense, and could be done for these games, I believe, without much expense.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
