

September 30, 1944.

Mr. George Edwards,
Basketball Coach,
University of Missouri,
Columbia, Missouri.

Dear George:

Thanks for your two good letters. I appreciate your remarks and assure you that any time Missouri plays in Kansas City, so far as Kansas is concerned, we want to be on the bill. You are very unselfish to offer to do the things that you do, but I would not hear to that.

I am writing Frosty Cox today and enclosing a copy of my letter herewith, asking if he would like to go in on the games on December 22 and 23 with Missouri, Kansas State and Kansas. If he does we will consider that our foursome is all made up and begin to plug the publicity.

What I am also trying to do, George, is to arrange some games for the 15 and 16. You remember Bruce and the Pre-Flighters want to play on the 16th, and Bruce is not interested in the 15th. So it may be that we cannot arrange the 15th and 16th deals, but I am planning on Missouri being with us as well as Kansas State on the 22nd and 23rd.

Regarding the discussed difficulties with Frosty, the only difficulty I ever had with Frosty was when he scoured the State of Kansas for his Colorado basketball team. He did not do it one year, but repeatedly. I never object to retail proselyting, but when it comes to wholesale I think that is rather out of place, especially when one state goes into the other in a consistent and strenuous manner.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH