Gwinn Henry has been director of athletics at the University of Kansas since the summer of 1937, coming from the University of New Mexico, where he had been director and football coach for three years.

Mr. Henry is a native of Texas where he attained fame as a sprinter. He coached football five years at the College of Emporia and nine years at the University of Missouri. Since coming to Kansas as director he has extended the circle of good will by numerous appearances in cities of the state. Under his administration heating has been obtained for indoor track, a dressing room for the freshman basketball squad; and numerous innovations introduced in the Kansas Relays.
