Mr. Reaves Peters,
342 So. Chelsea,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Reaves:

Ted is all right. Why can we not have Meisinger? Although he is a Kansas State man, I still would like to use him. I find that I would much rather get these men who work in high school games because they will call a foul. I just don't want Cecil Peterson because I think he never will be a good official. I have just struck him off my list for the future because I think he officiates from the outside of the skin rather than the inside of judgment.

Eddie Hogue is O.K., and so would Max Roper be, but I believe that Meisinger would be better. I will take the responsibility so far as I am concerned in his being a Kansas State man.

What about Parke Carroll? Did he get back to Kansas City?

If you do not want to use Meisinger at Manhattan on February 16th, that is O.K., but let's use him at Lawrence. There is nobody here that knows he is from Kansas State, and I don't think it will affect him. If we could use Parke Carroll at Manhattan it would be fine. Max Roper, of Lincoln, will be all right at Manhattan. Let me know what you think.

What about this tall, light-haired boy from Topeka - Fager? He worked some of the clinic games at Hutchinson. Why don't we try him?

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
