

January 14, 1944.

To Whom It May Concern:

It was necessary for Harold McSpadden to miss his 11:30 class on Friday, January 7, to enable him to catch the train for Columbia, Missouri, where we played the University of Missouri. The boys had to eat their lunch in Lawrence before train time.

Sincerely,

Varsity Basketball Coach.