P.S. The 6:50 p.m. Santa Fe over which we bought out tickets, was reported at 8 p.m. then 10 p.m., which made it impossible for us to ride the Santa Fe. We had to requisition cars and Lindquist and Barrington were able to accommodate us. Since there were 13 in the party, 12 rode in the two cars and Allen took the Union Pacific to Kansas City. On the way back the trains were so crowded that Dean Nesmith, Charles Moffett and Sparky McSpadden were unable to board any of the Santa Fe trains; hence they came on the bus. This necessitated extra expenditure.
