

August 26, 1942.

Mr. Dorman H. O'Leary,
Vice President, Stern Brothers & Co.,
Kansas City, Missouri.

Dear Dorman:

I know you are tired of reading this tripe, but after everything was all settled and Missouri had agreed, through the interpolations of Harry Welsh, it was discovered that George Edwards had without saying anything to Harry Welsh changed the date of his game with Pre-Flight School from January 30 to February 12.

Of course, McBride had already run it in the paper and I told Harry, and Harry agreed with me, that unless Missouri straightened out the situation and came in with the Iowa team there would be nothing doing.

This letter is from George Edwards after he thinks Larry Snyder and Eddie Hickey did a wonderful job in arranging it so George could play as he originally agreed upon. This closes the incident, but I did want you to know the whole story so when you talk to Hatch you would know that somebody is a screwball. It is not necessary for me to mention any names.

Very cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
