whenever possibel and have done so, but at that there are so few over there that are capable of doing the job. In our interscholastic league we attempt to use officials from just outside Kansas City whenever possible, and there were just two that we could use from across the Kaw- only one of them met with general approval.

I fail to see where there is any connection between old acquaintances and officiating. I am quite sure that there is no connection between friendships and officiating in so far as you are concerned.

Believe I told you that Curtiss had gone into the service and was not available for officiating. I don't know at this time what we are going to do about your games with the Oklahoma Aggies, and between the Aggies and Oklahoma. It will be difficult to find men that will be agreeable to all concerned.

Very sincerely yours,

R. E. Peters Commissioner
