My dear Phog:

As you know, the army provides for the establishment of refresher courses for men who are unable to keep up the full program of studies. The boys in the refresher group will be withdrawn from all the class schedules and will start on Tuesday in the refresher program of physics, chemistry, and math. The boys on the failing list will be withdrawn from the program within a few days.

The boys in the refresher group must keep up their physical training program and in order to fit them into the schedule of the new course, it has been necessary to make some changes in the physical training hours. These are indicated on the sheet which is enclosed. I hope it will be possible for you to make these changes with the instructors involved starting Tuesday. The rest of the boys in refresher program will be able to continue in their regular physical training section.

Sincerely yours,

Bert A. Nash
