| Portrays intimately the interesting life of goats and kids on a goat farm. The care of the goats and milking are explained. Two goat kids are followed from birth until they are about two months old. Old Billy goat has been taught to pull a wagon in which milk is delivered in the village. Film content correlates with reading, oral and written language, nature study, elementary science, social studies, and geography. (Erpi)  GRASSHOPPENS  A U.S.D.A picture of the life history of the grasshopper. Pictures of many species of grasshoppers feeding and the damage which they do. Detailed account of the life history of the grasshopper. Control methods—detailed explanation of the mixing of poison bait and how to scatter it.  HOLLAND CHILDREN  Provides a study of the home life, environment and activities of a country boy and girl in picturesque Holland. After helping with the morning farm chores, they partake of breakfast prior to journeying to their uncle's windmill. Their school activities, sports and games are shown in natural settings. A horse and cart trip with their parents to a Dutch town provides glimpses of rural and urban life. After returning home, the day is concluded with handicraft, hobby and recreational activities. Reproduced and interpretantive conversations are provided in several sequences. (Erpi)  HORSES  Wild horses; thoroughbreds; Man of War; trained horses performing; cross—country racing in France; Coronation Derby in England; Kentucky Derby; pole horses; cavalry maneuvers; Grand National Steeplechase.  HOUSEFLY  Emphasizes the necessity of control of the fly. Shows how nature and man attempt to control the fly. The life history of the fly. Microscopic view of the fly's eye. Experiment showing the fly's strength. (Edited)  LOUIS PASTEUR: THE BENEFACTOR  The character of Pasteur is portrayed by the famous French actor, Sach Guitry, Pasteur's career is followed through his struggles against the prejudices of organized medicine, the Academy of Medicine, his experiments in fermentations; the silk indus |   |  |   |      |
|--|---|--|---|------|
| A U.S.D.A picture of the life history of the grasshopper. Pictures of many species of grasshoppers feeding and the damage which they do. Detailed account of the life history of the grasshopper. Control methods—detailed explanation of the mixing of poison bait and how to scatter it.  HOLLAND CHILDREN  Provides a study of the home life, environment and activities of a country boy and girl in picturesque Holland.  After helping with the morning farm chores, they partake of breakfast prior to journeying to their uncle's windmill. Their school activities, sports and games are shown in natural settings. A horse and cart trip with their parents to a Dutch town provides glimpses of rural and urban life. After returning home, the day is concluded with handicraft, hobby and recreational activities. Reproduced and interpretantive conversations are provided in several sequences. (Erpi)  HORSES  Wild horses; thoroughbreds; Man of War; trained horses performing; cross—country racing in France; Coronation Derby in England; Kentucky Derby; polo horses; cavalry maneuvers; Grand National Steeplechase.  HOUSEFLY  Emphasizes the necessity of control of the fly. Shows how nature and man attempt to control the fly. The life history of the fly. Microscopic view of the fly's eye.  Experiment showing the fly's strength. (Edited)  LOUIS PASTEUR: THE BENEFACTOR  The character of Pasteur is portrayed by the famous French actor, Sacha Guitry. Pasteur's career is followed through his struggles against the prejudices of organized medicine, the Academy of Medicine, his experiments in fermentations; the silk industry; anthrax, and the first rabies treatment of a boy bitten by a mad dog. A complete resume of his life and accomplishments and his final recognition by the  |   | Portrays intimately the interesting life of goats and kids on a goat farm. The care of the goats and milking are explained. Two goat kids are followed from birth until they are about two months old. Old Billy goat has been taught to pull a wagon in which milk is delivered in the village. Film content correlates with reading, oral and written language, nature study, elementary science, social studies,  |   | 2.00 |
| A U.S.D.A picture of the life history of the grasshopper. Pictures of many species of grasshoppers feeding and the damage which they do. Detailed account of the life history of the grasshopper. Control methods—detailed explanation of the mixing of poison bait and how to scatter it.  HOLLAND CHILDREN  Provides a study of the home life, environment and activities of a country boy and girl in picturesque Holland.  After helping with the morning farm chores, they partake of breakfast prior to journeying to their uncle's windmill. Their school activities, sports and games are shown in natural settings. A horse and cart trip with their parents to a Dutch town provides glimpses of rural and urban life. After returning home, the day is concluded with handicraft, hobby and recreational activities. Reproduced and interpretantive conversations are provided in several sequences. (Erpi)  HORSES  Willd horses; thoroughbreds; Man of War; trained horses performing; cross—country racing in France; Coronation Derby in England; Kentucky Derby; polo horses; cavalry maneuvers; Grand National Steeplechase.  HOUSEFLY  Emphasizes the necessity of control of the fly. Shows how nature and man attempt to control the fly. The life history of the fly. Microscopic view of the fly's eye.  Experiment showing the fly's strength. (Edited)  LOUIS PASTEUR: THE BENEFACTOR  The character of Pasteur is portrayed by the famous French actor, Sacha Guitry. Pasteur's career is followed through his struggles against the prejudices of organized medicine, the Academy of Medicine, his experiments in fermentations; the silk industry; anthrax, and the first rabies treatment of a boy bitten by a mad dog. A complete resume of his life and accomplishments and his final recognition by the   | GRASSI                                  | HOPPERS  | 2 | 2.00 |
| Provides a study of the home life, environment and activities of a country boy and girl in picturesque Holland.  After helping with the morning farm chores, they partake of breakfast prior to journeying to their uncle's windmill. Their school activities, sports and games are shown in natural settings. A horse and cart trip with their parents to a Dutch town provides glimpses of rural and urban life. After returning home, the day is concluded with handicraft, hobby and recreational activities. Reproduced and interpretednative conversations are provided in several sequences. (Erpi)  HORSES  Wild horses; thoroughbreds; Man of War; trained horses performing; cross—country racing in France; Coronation Derby in England; Kentucky Derby; polo horses; cavalry maneuvers; Grand National Steeplechase.  HOUSEFLY  Emphasizes the necessity of control of the fly. Shows how nature and man attempt to control the fly. The life history of the fly. Microscopic view of the fly's eye.  Experiment showing the fly's strength. (Edited)  LOUIS PASTEUR: THE BENEFACTOR  The character of Pasteur is portrayed by the famous French actor, Sacha Guitry. Pasteur's career is followed through his struggles against the prejudices of organized medicine, the Academy of Medicine, his experiments in fermentations; the silk industry; anthrax, and the first rabies treatment of a boy bitten by a mad dog. A complete resume of his life and accomplishments and his final recognition by the  |   | A U.S.D.A picture of the life history of the grasshopper. Pictures of many species of grasshoppers feeding and the damage which they do. Detailed account of the life history of the grasshopper. Control methods—detailed explanation   |   |      |
| Wild horses; thoroughbreds; Man of War; trained horses performing; cross-country racing in France; Coronation Derby in England; Kentucky Derby; polo horses; cavalry maneuvers; Grand National Steeplechase.  HOUSEFLY  Emphasizes the necessity of control of the fly. Shows how nature and man attempt to control the fly. The life history of the fly. Microscopic view of the fly's eye. Experiment showing the fly's strength. (Edited)  LOUIS PASTEUR: THE BENEFACTOR  The character of Pasteur is portrayed by the famous French actor, Sacha Guitry. Pasteur's career is followed through his struggles against the prejudices of organized medicine, the Academy of Medicine, his experiments in fermentations; the silk industry; anthrax, and the first rabies treatment of a boy bitten by a mad dog. A complete resume of his life and accomplishments and his final recognition by the   | T t A T T T T T T T T T T T T T T T T T | Provides a study of the home life, environment and activities of a country boy and girl in picturesque Holland. After helping with the morning farm chores, they partake of breakfast prior to journeying to their uncle's windmill. Their school activities, sports and games are shown in natural settings. A horse and cart trip with their parents to a Dutch town provides glimpses of rural and urban life. After returning home, the day is concluded with handicraft, hobby and recreational activities. Reproduced and interpretednative conversations are provided in several sequences. | 1 | 2.00 |
| Emphasizes the necessity of control of the fly. Shows how nature and man attempt to control the fly. The life history of the fly. Microscopic view of the fly's eye. Experiment showing the fly's strength. (Edited)  LOUIS PASTEUR: THE BENEFACTOR 2 4.00  The character of Pasteur is portrayed by the famous French actor, Sacha Guitry. Pasteur's career is followed through his struggles against the prejudices of organized medicine, the Academy of Medicine, his experiments in fermentations; the silk industry; anthrax, and the first rabies treatment of a boy bitten by a mad dog. A complete resume of his life and accomplishments and his final recognition by the  | I                                       | Wild horses; thoroughbreds; Man of War; trained horsesperforming; cross-country racing in France; CoronationDerby in England; Kentucky Derby; polo horses; cavalry   |   | 1.00 |
| The character of Pasteur is portrayed by the famous French actor, Sacha Guitry. Pasteur's career is followed through his struggles against the prejudices of organized medicine, the Academy of Medicine, his experiments in fermentations; the silk industry; anthrax, and the first rabies treatment of a boy bitten by a mad dog. A complete resume of his life and accomplishments and his final recognition by the  | E                                       | Emphasizes the necessity of control of the fly. Shows how nature and man attempt to control the fly. The life nistory of the fly. Microscopic view of the fly's eye.   |   | 2.00 |
|  | T a h t t o l                           | The character of Pasteur is portrayed by the famous French actor, Sacha Guitry. Pasteur's career is followed through his struggles against the prejudices of organized medicine, the Academy of Medicine, his experiments in fermentations; the silk industry; anthrax, and the first rabies treatment of a boy bitten by a mad dog. A complete resume of his life and accomplishments and his final recognition by the  | 2 | 4.00 |

Mussolini visits Hitler; Japan invades China; war in Spain Amelia Earhart lost; Soviet fliers girdle globe; many other headline events.

NEWS PARADE OF 1937

1.00