Mr. H. E. Chandler,
Frank Strong Hall.

Dear Mr. Chandler:

I am sending you a carbon copy of the letter that I have written to Mr. Nichols.

You remember that each year previously Dean Swarthout paid for putting up the lights, but since our playground started to operate it seems as if we are paying the whole bill. I can see a reason why we should pay a part of it, but certainly not more than half, and since Dean Swarthout did not pay any last year or this year it seems fair to me that he should bear his share.

If this is fresh in your mind will you please transmit this information to Mr. Nichols? Thank you.

Very cordially yours,
