

Haldorson, Colorado; Bob Reiter, Missouri and Park, enjoyed an extra tournament appearance since they were eligible as freshmen under the Korean war code.

Lovellette's all-time career standard of 222 appears out of reach even for Stewart.

Here is the elite the Big Tiber will be trying to crack:

	G	FG	FT	MFT	PF	TP
Clyde Lovellette, c, Kansas, '49-50-51	9	93	36	12	23	22 2
Lester Lane, g, Oklahoma, '51-52-53-54	12	64	46	28	39	174
Burdy Haldorson, c, Col., '51-52-53-54	10	54	53	21	28	161
Chuck Duncan, c, Iowa State, '52-53-54	9	59	36	29	23	154
Jesse Prisock, f, Kansas State, '52-53-54	9	49	37	16	32	135
Jim Buchanan, g, Nebraska, '49-50-51	9	58	18	10	15	134
Bob Reiter, c, Missouri, '51-52-53-54	12	47	38	12	42	132
Dick Knostman, c, Kansas State, '50-51-52	9	46	34	20	22	131
Bob Jeangerard, f, Colorado, '51-52-53-54	9	40	44	13	15	124
Med Park, f, Missouri, '51-52-53-54	12	28	64	21	28	120

Stewart also will threaten the single-meet free throw record of 29 erected by Park just last year. The former is averaging 8.6 charities per game, which would, if maintained, gross 25.8 tournament tosses. And, if he can unwind another 30-night in Kansas City, he will join another select company. ^{Only} Oklahoma's Sherman Norton, the single-game record-holder at 39; Minnesota's Maynard Johnson, Lovellette, Haldorson and Knostman has equalled or bettered that magic number in tournament play.

Only other veteran within punting distance of the all-time circle is Dallas Dobbs, Kansas' two-time all-conference guard. And he will be obliged to fall into one of his periodic hot streaks to reach it. Never a particularly outstanding tournament pointsmith, Dobbs has collected 56 through his first two whirls on the Municipal auditorium planks.
